

Hopewell Valley Senior
Services and the Hopewell
Public Library Present:

People and Stories

An Innovative Literature Program for Older Adults

Thursdays (8 sessions, March 26-May 7)

9:30-11:30am

Hopewell Train Station

2 Railroad Place in Hopewell Borough

People and Stories uses reading and discussion of short stories to create a recreational, enjoyable, yet educational experience that is relevant to life. People and Stories is a non-profit and a program without walls, run throughout Mercer County. This program is made possible in Hopewell through generous funding from the Hopewell Harvest Fair and Stony Brook Assisted Living.

Free. Registration required by calling 737-0605, ext. 692.