

Redlibrary.org

466-1625

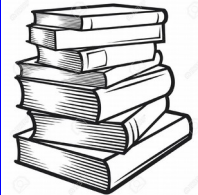

HOPEWELL PUBLIC LIBRARY
Summer Reading Program 2018

Summer Reading Sign-up starts June 22 !

(for ages preschool and up)

Decide how many books you want to read this summer.
When you reach your goal - get a free ice cream at the Boro Bean!

Weekly Children's Activities: Wednesdays 4:00pm (Ages 5yrs and up)

PRE-REGISTRATION IS REQUIRED – PLACES ARE LIMITED

June 27: Mixed Media Mosaics with artist Debbie Reichard

July 11: Pet Rocks at Arts Sparks

July 18: Rock Sculpture with Jody Olcott from Ebb

July 25: Snakes! Gail Gardner and Lucy the ball python

August 1: Rock Jewelry with Jessica Mueller

August 8: Mini Rock Gardens with Ellie Rock

June 30 – Meet Hopewell's Children's Book Authors

2:00pm at the Hopewell Train Station

-Abigail Rayner – The Back Up Bunny

-Barbara DiLorenzo – Quincy The Chameleon Who Couldn't Blend In

August 1 – Special Family Event

7:00pm at the Gazebo

A Reading and Nature Walk with naturalist Jeff Hoagland

August 15 – Summer Celebration

6:00 at the Train Station

Gordon Powers will bring fluorescent rocks and more!

- from the Sterling Hill Mining Museum

Summer
Events

Starting July 1st

Don't miss the annual town Scavenger Hunt!

Visit the Library or check the website for Hunt details

Annual Library Event!

For all ages:

Scavenger Hunt during the whole month of July!

2018 Theme: The Stones of Hopewell

Check the Library website for details and updates – redlibrary.org